① house people who need housing in the thousands of empty units that are listed at unaffordable rates + stop viewing people experiencing homelessness as the problem + start looking at the structural roots

② fund preventative measures such as afterschool programs, job training, wealth building programs in low income neighborhoods